Introduction

Campus visits are a required component for all GEAR UP high school students. Campus visits can help students and families realize the possibilities that exist beyond high school and their community. These visits have the added benefit of easing the concerns and anxieties of both students and families, especially for first-generation students and their parents.

Students have multiple opportunities to visit postsecondary campuses, beginning with a broad look at options in the middle school years and then targeted visits aligned with students' specific college and career interests in high school.

These meaningful experiences provide students and their families with opportunities to visit classrooms, meet instructors, and talk to current college students, including alumni from their own schools and communities.

This guidebook is intended for use by GEAR UP Specialists and College Coordinators. It includes best practices and resources from a variety of sources, which includes GEAR UP programs from across the nation, the College Board, the Nevada Department of Education, and the Nevada System of Higher Education. It is meant to be a working copy with replicable, customizable tools. It will be updated with resources and lessons learned from our own Nevada GEAR UP schools.

Get Ready for a Campus Visit

Decide on a Purpose

GEAR UP students who are exposed to college campuses can begin to see themselves there. However, many families lack the resources to make these visits on their own. Most first-generation families do not know how to plan for a meaningful campus experience. Some students that go on to postsecondary school will limit their options to those closest to home, rather than the one best aligned with their goals and aspirations. Campus visits provide meaningful opportunities for students and families to increase motivation, explore options, and familiarize themselves with postsecondary options. Deciding on the purpose of the visit before planning will help clarify your next steps.

Before you begin planning the logistics, consider what it is you hope students will achieve with their visit. A visit that is geared for middle school students will have different needs than one intended for high school juniors and seniors. Some options that go beyond the standard walking tour include:

- Relating class curriculum to current research or college courses
- Exploring the history of the university
- Discovering support services available to students
- Understanding financial aid and admissions
- Connecting with college student mentors
- Recognizing career options and college majors

Determine Costs and Funding

Because programming is generally offered free of charge, campus visits can be a very affordable field trip. Costs may include transportation, substitute teachers, food, and possible lodging. Some colleges may have funds for special groups or events to help with transportation or meal costs. Check with the GEAR UP First Year Advisor at the college for further information.

Determine When to Visit

Visiting a campus helps create a college-going culture in schools. They assist students in choosing a college or university. These visits are not just for juniors and seniors. Even middle school students can benefit from an on-campus experience.

Types of tours and activities will vary depending on the age and grade level of participating students. If the tour is targeting high school upperclassmen, then it is preferable for them to visit a college prior to application deadlines. Plan your visit in advance in order to ensure that classes will be in session, so students have the opportunity to see and experience typical campus life.

How to Pick a Date

If you plan your visit well in advance, students and families are more likely to have an opportunity to see the essentials and meet with the appropriate college staff. Many institutions have academic calendars posted online. Below are some guidelines on when to visit.

Best Seasons

- For middle school, or younger high school students: Timing is flexible because visits are usually more focused as on-campus experiences. Young students do not necessarily need to see the same things as upperclassmen
- For juniors: If students have already researched colleges, the spring is a good time
- For seniors: The late summer and early September are convenient times to visit because some colleges begin their fall quarter/semester as early as mid-August
- Some seniors may wish to visit campuses after they have been accepted. Visits can help them make in-depth comparisons between the colleges that have accepted them

When Not to Go

- Check specific dates with each institution so that you don't arrive when the campus is deserted
- Call or look on the website for the academic calendar to find out when breaks, reading periods or dead day, and exam periods are scheduled

Typically, colleges/universities are not in session during:

- Thanksgiving weekend
- Certain holidays like Christmas
- Winter and spring breaks
- Summer session may vary

Classes don't usually meet during:

- Reading periods (between the end of classes and before the final exam period)
- Exam weeks
- Winter and spring breaks
- Saturdays and Sundays (some campuses limit Friday classes)

The Admissions Office may be closed to visitors at certain times. For example, admissions officers may be too busy to meet with you in April or May – that’s when they’re reviewing applications. On some campuses there are few classes held on Fridays so make sure you are familiar with the best days to plan a campus visit.

Contacting the College or University

- Use your GEAR UP and NSHE staff as a resource for planning your college visit
- Contact the college or university of your choice at least one month ahead (preferably longer) of your preferred visit
 - The college you choose to visit may be based on your goals for the visit, geographic proximity, or date of availability
- It may take several calls or emails to reach the right contact person(s) that can organize the specific kind of trip you want
- You may wish to use the Campus Visit Logistics form (see Appendix) to clarify your preferences with the college. However, many schools now have their own online form
- If you are taking middle school students, be specific with admissions office about the goals of the visit and what activities you’d like their assistance in coordinating
- In general, admissions offices will lead student groups on walking tours and offer presentations on financial aid and college entrance requirements
- If you want to do special or custom activities, allow extra planning time to coordinate with campus staff
- Consider offering Campus Tour Tips for 7th – 12th Graders handout (see Appendix) to postsecondary staff that may be less familiar with working with middle or high school students
- Be specific about any special arrangements you may want or need

Be clear on what you’d like the students to see and do. Activities might include:

- Campus tours led by students
- Student panels
- Hands-on activities related to class curriculum
- Admissions/financial aid presentations
- Visiting dorms or athletic facilities
- Eating at the campus dining facility
- Sitting in on a class
- Times to talk with an instructor
- Consider contacting alumni from your town’s high school who attend the university to serve as tour guides, mentors, and/or part of a student panel

Be Flexible!

- Have a range of dates that you will be available to visit
- Consider bringing smaller groups on multiple days
- Understand that all of your requests might not be met due to staffing or time limitations

Open House/Special Events versus Traditional Campus Tours

One option is to visit a university or college during their special events days that are geared toward particular groups.

Pros

- More programming and special presentations or tours are available
- Information for specific target groups
- May include lunch or transportation funding

Cons

- Less opportunity for custom programs
- Often takes place during breaks when college students aren't in class or on campus
- Lumped with other schools into larger groups

Prepare Students

Once you have identified the goals of the visit and set up the logistics, you can create and implement pre-visit activities for your students. The activities should encourage students to think about and question the different aspects of what makes a good college fit. Students will learn about options, identify preferences, and get engaged. Sample activities found in the Appendix are designed to get students to consider the following aspects, and their preferences:

- Type of institution (liberal arts, technical, professional)
- Academics (types of degrees and majors offered)
- Location (distance from home, online, rural, urban, etc.)
- Number of students (small, medium, or large)
- Student life (on-campus housing, extracurricular activities, sports teams, academic support)
- Student body diversity
- Independent or religiously-affiliated

- Cost and financial aid availability

Use the College Board’s Big Future College Search tool, the College Board Score Card, or the other college comparison tools found in the Appendix.

These pre-activities can be done in school or at home, alone, or with family members prior to a campus visit. Ideas, many of which can be found in the Appendix, include:

- Online Scavenger Hunt for interesting facts about the college
- Virtual Tour (see Appendix for a list of recommended websites)
- Budgeting/math activities on college tuition and fees
- Language arts essays or history project about college or famous alumni
- General college prep curriculum such as NELA’s “I’m Going to College”, College Board’s “CollegeEd” or NACAC’s “Guiding the Way to Higher Education”, available in English and Spanish
- Administer a Pre-Visit Survey (see Appendix) to assess student knowledge and aspirations about college, or use information from the GEAR UP survey

Prepare Parents/Family Members

Parents/adult family members can also benefit from a visit to a college campus. Engage families in pre-visit activities. Consider holding a Family/Parent Night prior to the visit to provide an overview of the importance of college, financial aid, and how they can help their student. Invite them to attend campus visits as chaperones. If any intend to serve as a chaperone, you may wish to review expectations at that time.

Logistics and Administrative Details

As the GEAR UP Staff or College Coordinator, you will need to plan ahead and manage all the necessary details required at your school in order to take a field trip, which may include:

- Getting approval from school board and/or administration
- Completing a Campus Logistics form
- Submitting a field trip form to the NDE GEAR UP office for prior approval
- Requesting substitute teachers
- Organizing bus transportation
- Arranging for meals and snacks
- Recruiting chaperones
- Collecting permission slips
- Creating nametags

- Ensuring that GEAR UP Student Event and Family Event Participation Logs are accurately completed
- Entering service and participation in the GEARS Database

Chaperones are responsible for student behavior. Institutions are adamant that schools provide an adequate number of chaperones. Prepare chaperones prior to the visit. In addition to the GEAR UP Chaperone Expectations handout, it is recommended that you clarify planned activities and roles/responsibilities. Provide chaperones with the following:

- In accordance with FERPA, if possible, a list of the students for whom they will be responsible and any special needs they may have
- Suggestions and procedures for managing student behavior
- A schedule
- A map
- Contact numbers for the GEAR UP Specialist/College Coordinator and any other important contacts
- An overview of emergency procedures

Remember to check in periodically with your college campus contact. Logistical items to discuss with your contact may include:

- Assigning groups (consider small groups chaperoned by one adult to minimize behavior problems)
- Directions, maps, and parking information
- Cell phone numbers for chaperones, staff, and bus drivers
- Items students should bring (or leave home)
- Expectations or code of conduct for students and chaperones
- In-Kind/Match paperwork

During and After the Campus Visit

During the Visit

On the day of the campus visit, the best advice is to be flexible because unexpected events almost always occur. Pre-visit preparation should minimize these issues, but keep these considerations in mind:

- Review expectations for students and chaperones while on the bus
- Play On-the-Bus Games to reinforce pre-visit activities
- Notify the campus contact if you will be early or late
- Supervise and monitor behavior
- Wear comfortable shoes and dress appropriately for the weather (warn students to do the same, as most college visits require a lot of outdoor travel)
- Take photos and make it an exciting event for all involved

After the Visit

A great post-visit follow up activity is to assess the impact that the college visit had on your student's interests in attending college. This step allows you to adjust and improve the experience for future years. Use a Post-Visit Survey, found in the Appendix.

- It is also a great time to send thank-you notes, written by you or your students to the college's staff or students that made the campus experience memorable. Maintain the enthusiasm of your students and parents after a college visit by trying the following: Administer a Post-Visit Survey (mandatory)
- Have students complete reflection activities such as journaling or completing the Campus Scorecard
- Post photos from the visit on the school website, Facebook, or on classroom bulletin board. Note: students must have a signed Media Release on file at the school
- Host additional Parent/Family Information Nights
- Have a college t-shirt day or other traditions that reinforce the college-going culture of your school or class
- Refer back to information learned during the college visit
- Start planning the next visit. 😊

APPENDIX

This Appendix contains sample handouts, pre-visit activities, games, pre- and post-surveys, and additional resources. Customize these documents to fit your needs. Please share your own resources/best practices by sending them to Contact Us at Nevada GEAR UP.

PRE-VISIT

STUDENTS – STAFF – CHAPERONES

Tips from College Advisors GEAR UP 7th – 12th Graders

1. Get Ready for a Campus Visit

- Work with the GEAR UP First Year Advisor and/or College Coordinator to identify the needs/wants of the group.
- A minimum college visit for a GEAR UP school should include: a campus tour; a meeting with an Admissions representative; and a presentation on Financial Aid.
- A preferable college campus visit includes hands-on components that allow students to engage directly with some aspect of the college experience (such as an experiment or small project).
- Set up the actual visit and communicate with all involved parties.
- Know your audience. Make sure you know how many students to expect, ages, grades, type of school, etc.
- Handouts or publications should be selected with the grade level in mind.

2. Meet and Greet

- Welcome the group
 - Show that you are genuinely happy that the group is visiting your campus.
 - Be confident and take charge of the group.
 - Tell the students “Today you are college students, so please be respectful as we go through campus and classrooms”. This statement reinforces what teachers and chaperones have already discussed. It reminds them that they are potential college students and therefore must be aware of how their actions will affect those around them.
- Identify the Chaperones
 - Have them introduce themselves.
 - Let them know what you expect (i.e. “When we start the tour, at least 2 chaperones must be in each group).
 - Have a chaperone collect anything you think will become a problem (i.e. cell phones, etc.).
- Review the schedule and process
 - Share information on what they will see and do while on campus.
 - Split into groups if necessary (due to size or interests).
 - Remind them how happy you are that they are visiting your campus.
 - Remind them that as guests they must be respectful and well-behaved

3. Provide a Meaningful Experience

- Keep the students engaged.
- Provide opportunities for students to ask and answer questions; engage in interactive activities, etc.
- Students are more likely to pay attention, ask questions, etc. if they connect with you. Ask each student to quickly state their name, grade, and one thing (favorite color, sport, subject, etc.)
- Reward with praise or incentives. If you have college swag (pens, pencils, stickers, etc.), give them to students who participate.
- Many colleges come up with a “signature” component that is fun, interactive, and memorable for the students.
- Allow students to tour inside of some buildings so they get a sense of college life. A tour consisting of pointing out buildings from the sidewalk does not capture student’s attention or really give them a good picture of campus life.
- If possible, use guides that are graduates from the touring school. This option will require additional coordination between campus staff and GEAR UP staff.
- Student panels are always a big hit.
- If possible, make arrangements for students to eat on campus.

4. Send Them on Their Way

- Depending on your college’s mailing list policy, invite students/parents to complete an interest card. They love to receive mail.
- Have them complete a post-visit survey and/or College Scorecard.
- Follow up by phone or email with the GEAR UP College Coordinator or GEAR UP Specialist

On behalf of the entire Nevada GEAR UP Program, thank you for your time and for your commitment to student success!

Expectations for GEAR UP Chaperones

PRE-VISIT
CHAPERONES

The Nevada GEAR UP program provides students with many opportunities to start seeing college in their futures.

One important way we do this is by taking students to college campuses for visits. The colleges and GEAR UP require that student groups are well-supervised at all times. We appreciate your willingness to serve as a GEAR UP chaperone. Here is some information to help you understand your role as a chaperone:

GEAR UP Chaperones will:

- Act as a positive role model for the students (stay with the group, leave personal items at home or on the bus, don't talk on cell phone, etc.).
- Be attentive and respectful to all speakers. Model the behavior that you expect from your students.
- Monitor behavior of the students. If there is a problem, talk to the school staff to determine the appropriate level of corrective action needed.
- Take responsibility for enforcing campus rules. Remember campus officials are used to working with older students. They may not be as prepared as you are to engage younger students.
- If students are split into smaller groups, make sure that at least one chaperone goes with each group.
- Ask appropriate questions of the tour guide/speakers if you don't think your students understand the information.
- Collect anything from a student that is distracting (i.e. cell phones, iPod, ear buds, etc.).
- Feel appreciated for helping make this college visit a success.
- Complete an In-Kind/Match form (if applicable).
- Have a great time 😊

GEAR UP Chaperones will not:

- Rely on campus officials to enforce the rules.
- Engage in conversations that will distract from the tour and campus visit.

Things to Think About Before Visiting Campus

College visits are a great way to learn about campus life, get your questions answered, and to get excited about attending college in your near future.

To get the most out of this trip, we ask that you please observe the following guidelines:

1. Be on time for all sessions.
2. Remain on campus during the entire program and attend all sessions unless otherwise pre-approved.
3. Ask questions so you can learn as much as possible.
4. Please wear your nametag while visiting the campus.
5. Be respectful to workshop presenters, tour guides, chaperones, and other campus staff.
6. Keep all personal items (ear buds, backpacks, phones, etc.) at home or on the bus.
7. Do not bring food or drinks to workshops, classrooms, or activities.
8. Enjoy the beautiful surroundings and what the campus has to offer you!
9. Remember that you are a guest while on campus. Please set a good example as your behavior will determine if your school and/or other schools will be invited for campus visits in the future.
10. Have fun! 😊

College Comparison Scorecard

PRE-VISIT
STUDENTS

Compare colleges based on the characteristics that are most important to you. This Scorecard helps you evaluate colleges, side-by-side.

Step 1: Take the “What’s My Ideal College?” survey in the left column.

Step 2: Rank the colleges that you visit in person or on a virtual tour on a scale of 1 to 3, based on how well they fit your criteria.

Step 3: Total up the scores to see which college might be the best fit for you.

Ranking System (1-3)

3 = It's a perfect match

2 = It kinda meets my criteria

1 = Nope, it doesn't have what I want

What's my ideal college? Circle one or more answers that apply to you.	College #1	College #2	College #3
I want a college that is located: a) Close to home b) As far away as possible c) Somewhat in between so I can go back for weekends and holidays
I prefer a campus size that is: a) Small (under 5,000 students) b) Medium (5,000 – 15,000 students) c) Large (15,000+ students)
I want my college to be in: a) City b) Suburbs c) Country
I want to be able to live: a) On campus, in a dorm or apartment b) Off campus, in an apartment or house c) At home
I prefer a college that is: a) Private (not a public or state school) b) Single-sex (only male or female) c) Religiously affiliated d) Known for serving ethnic minority populations (i.e. tribal colleges, historically black colleges and universities, etc.) e) None of these are that important to me

What's my ideal college? Circle one or more answers that apply to you.	College #1	College #2	College #3
I want to complete my degree in: a) 2 years or less (AA) b) 4 years (BA or BS) c) More than 4 years (Master's, Doctorate, and Professional)

On-the-Bus Games for College Campus Visits

Use these games during the bus ride to the campus or as a fun pre-visit activity.

Family Feud

In this game, the two sides of the bus would compete against each other as “families”. The GEAR UP Specialist or College Coordinator would serve as the game host.

To start the game, one person from each team is paired against another for a speed question. For example, the host could ask:

- Name one of the fastest growing occupations in the United States
- Name one Nevada university mascot

Base your questions on whatever pre-visit materials you have covered with your students.

The first person to “hit the buzzer” (make a sound, clap, etc.) answers the question. If he/she is correct, the question goes to his/her team. If he/she gets the answer wrong, the other team gets a shot at the question. Then, each person on the team provides an answer for that question. As each answer is given, the host says, “survey says...!”. If the answer is correct, the team is awarded points (10 points per answer) and play continues. If the answer is incorrect, the team gets a “strike”. After three strikes, play is passed to the other team.

The team continues play with its question until all answers are given or a certain amount of time has passed. At that point, the host reveals all of the answers and tallies the points for that question.

Play resumes with another speed question, and so on.

20 Questions

The GEAR UP Specialist or College Coordinator picks the name of a college or university.

The students take turns asking questions about the school. They can ask up to 20 questions as they try to guess the answer. For example:

- It is a four-year college?
- Does it have housing?
- Is it located in northern Nevada?

The GEAR UP Specialist or College Coordinator can only answer “yes” or “no” to each question. When a student thinks he/she has the answer, he/she can write it on a piece of paper and show it to the Specialist or Coordinator. If the student is correct, he/she becomes the leader of the game and picks the next institution and the game starts again. If the answer is incorrect, play resumes.

Where Am I?

The GEAR UP Specialist or College Coordinator picks a college and states three things about themselves and the school, for example:

- I am living on campus
- I am studying nursing
- My college’s colors are purple and yellow

Students write down their guesses.

Repeat, several times using different colleges. The winner is determined based on the most correct answers. The winner picks the next college to use and asks the questions. Repeat.

NOTE: You can use GEAR UP funds to pay for small rewards such as stickers, pens, pencils, magnets, etc., to pass out to game winners/participants.

Campus Visit Checklist

ON-CAMPUS
STUDENTS

When you visit a campus, it's important that you ask the right types of questions:

Look at Equipment and School Facilities

- ☐ Are the facilities and equipment up-to-date and operating?
- ☐ Is the equipment similar to what you will be using on the job?
- ☐ Is the library good for studying and research?
- ☐ How large are the dorm rooms? What type of furniture is provided or allowed?
- ☐ Are the dorm rooms quiet enough for studying?
- ☐ What is the cafeteria like?
- ☐ Are there plenty of computer labs?
- ☐ Do students get free email and internet/wi-fi access?

Sit In on a Class or Two

- ☐ Do the instructors seem knowledgeable?
- ☐ Are the students participating in class activities?
- ☐ What kinds of work are the students doing?
- ☐ How large/small are the classes?

Talk with Current Students in the Class or Program

- ☐ How long have they been in school?
- ☐ Are they learning what they need to know to graduate and get a job?
- ☐ What is their opinion of the instructors? Are instructors available outside of class?
- ☐ Do the instructors spend time with students to be sure they understand the material?
- ☐ How much time is needed for studying and other work outside the class?
- ☐ Have they had any problems with the school, the instructors, or the class?
- ☐ What do they most/least like about the school or program?
- ☐ How do they spend their free time?
- ☐ What are the other students like?

Talk with Instructors in the Program

- ☐ What are the prerequisite or academic requirements for the program?
- ☐ What kinds of courses are offered? How often do they meet?
- ☐ How many students are in the program? How many are accepted each year?
- ☐ How long does it take most students to complete the program?
- ☐ How long have they been teaching at the college? Do they teach full- or part-time?
- ☐ What is their background in the field? How does it relate to the courses they teach?
- ☐ What types of activities are they involved in that relate to the field of study?

Talk with an Admissions Counselor

- ☐ Has the institution and its programs been accredited by a recognized accrediting association?
- ☐ What are the admissions requirements in the college for a specific program of study?
- ☐ How do you apply, and which forms do you need to fill out?
- ☐ When are the important deadlines for admissions?
- ☐ Will your family's ability to pay for college be a factor in the admissions process?
- ☐ What are the housing requirements and parking rules?
- ☐ What types of extracurricular activities are available?
- ☐ Can credits be earned online or transferred from or to other colleges?
- ☐ What percentage of first-year students return the following year?
- ☐ What percentage of graduates is employed within one year?
- ☐ What kind of intramural sports or athletic clubs are there?
- ☐ What kind of clubs or organizations are there on campus?

Talk with a Financial Aid Counselor

- ☐ How much does it cost to attend the college (including tuition, room and board, fees, etc.)?
- ☐ What financial aid options are available?
- ☐ Does the institution participate in federal and state aid programs? (Not all schools are eligible)
- ☐ What percentage of undergraduates receives financial aid?
- ☐ How much do students receive on average?
- ☐ Which financial aid forms do you need to fill out and what are the deadlines?
- ☐ Does the college offer scholarships? Who is most likely to receive them? How do students apply?
- ☐ Will private/non-government scholarships reduce the amount of need-based aid a student can receive?
- ☐ How is financial aid paid out? When will I receive it?
- ☐ How do I pay for my meals?
- ☐ Where do most graduates find work?
- ☐ How much do graduates typically owe in student loans and other debt?

How to Make the Most of Your Trip

Visiting a college campus helps you get a sense of what a college – and life at that college – is like. This can help you decide whether the college is right for you.

When planning your campus visits, make sure to allow time to explore each college. While you're there, talk to as many people as possible, like college admissions staff, professors, and students. Below are some other things you can do while visiting. Note: some activities will need to be set up in advance.

Gather Information Find out what you need to do to apply and see if the college's classes and major offerings are what you want:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Take part in a group information session at the admissions office. <input type="checkbox"/> Interview with an admissions officer. <input type="checkbox"/> Pick up financial aid forms. <input type="checkbox"/> Sit in on a class that interests you. If classes aren't in session, just see what the classroom settings are like. <input type="checkbox"/> Meet a professor who teaches a subject that interests you. <input type="checkbox"/> Talk to students about what they think of their classes and professors. <input type="checkbox"/> Get the names of the people you meet and their business cards so you can contact them later if you have questions or concerns.
Get Ready Before your visit, you should get prepared. When you're ready to go, remember to do the following:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Explore the college's official website and review any materials the college has sent you. This will help you come up with questions specific to that college. <input type="checkbox"/> Make a list of questions to ask both staff and students. You can use the Campus Visit Checklist as a starting point. <input type="checkbox"/> Get a map of the college campus and check where the admissions office is. This will help ensure that you're on time for your visit. <input type="checkbox"/> Pack a notebook and a camera so you can record your impressions. You'd be surprised at how easy it is to forget details after you've seen a few colleges. <input type="checkbox"/> Make fair comparisons of the colleges you visit. Print out several copies of the Campus Visit Score Card.
Explore the Campus Get a feel for student life and see if this college is the place where you will do well:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Take a campus tour. <input type="checkbox"/> Talk to current students about life on campus and the college. <input type="checkbox"/> If possible, check out the freshmen dorms and stay overnight with a parent or student. <input type="checkbox"/> Visit main student buildings such as the dining hall, fitness center, library, career center, bookstore, and other campus facilities. <input type="checkbox"/> Talk to the coaches of sports that you may want to play. <input type="checkbox"/> Explore the community surrounding the campus.

Check Out Campus Media Tune in to learn what's happening on campus and what's on students' minds:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Listen to college radio station. <input type="checkbox"/> Read the student newspaper. <input type="checkbox"/> Read other student publications, such as department newsletters, alternative papers, and literary reviews. <input type="checkbox"/> Scan bulletin boards to see what daily student life is like. <input type="checkbox"/> Go to the career center and learn what services they offer. <input type="checkbox"/> Browse the school's website and any campus blogs. <input type="checkbox"/>
Questions to Ask During Your Visit Here are some questions you may want to ask your tour guide or students you meet on campus:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> What are the best reasons to go to this college? <input type="checkbox"/> What's it like to go from high school to college? <input type="checkbox"/> What do you do in your free time? On the weekends? <input type="checkbox"/> What do you love about this college? <input type="checkbox"/> What do you wish you could change about the college? <input type="checkbox"/> Why did you choose this college? <input type="checkbox"/> What is it like to live here?

KnowHow2GO Campus Scavenger Hunt

What

The KnowHow2GO Scavenger Hunt is a fun and interactive way to get students to participate in the tour of their local college or university, and become comfortable and familiar with a campus environment. The game requires student to form teams and find locations or participate in actions on a list provided them within a set amount of time. The team that proves they've visited the most locations wins a small prize.

Why

College campuses can be a daunting place for pre-college students, especially for first-time visitors. The Scavenger Hunt is an entertaining and interactive way to introduce students to a college campus – and let them explore it (supervised, of course!). Students can prepare for, or recreate this experience at KnowHow2Go-U, an interactive virtual campus, at KnowHow2GO-U.

Who

The Scavenger Hunt is targeted at students in grades 8-10. However, the game is suitable for most middle and high school students provided there is adult supervision.

Items Needed

- Campus maps for participants and adult team leaders
- Copies of Scavenger Hunt list
- Pens/pencils for each student or team
- Camera or camera phone for each team leader
- Prize(s)

What

- Choose a campus that will allow you to host the event, and then reach out to the college's admissions director to ask permission.
- Once you secure a campus and visit date, ask for a guided tour and for suggestions for scavenger hunt locations to include on your Scavenger Hunt list.

- Finalize the Scavenger Hunt list using the Sample List of Campus Locations/Actions provided. The list should include locations on the campus of choice that students can prove they've visited through photos or other traceable evidence.
- Ask about any security access issues (if buildings cannot be entered without student ID cards, etc.)
- Require student teams to sign up in advance of the event and set standards, such as: Teams must have five students from two or more grades (8-12) and one adult. Each team should appoint a team leader and finish the Scavenger Hunt at an agreed-upon time.
- At the end of the time period, compare finds and debrief the activity with the students.

Sample List of Campus Locations/Actions

The list you provide to students will depend on the campus. Remember to ask your campus contact about any possible security issues, rules, or guidance. They may have their own prepared list. Use the suggested list below as a guide as you're planning your event:

Earn one point per item unless otherwise noted.

- Find out how many foreign language courses are offered.
- Find out the name of the college or university's mascot.
- Find out where first-year students live on campus.
- Find the gymnasium and write down their hours of operation for the day.
- Find the name of the campus radio or TV station. Earn a bonus point for taking a picture at either location.
- Find three faculty offices. Write down the professor's names and office hours. Earn a point for each pair.
- Go to a fraternity or sorority house and ask for the name of its president. Earn an extra point for taking a picture with him/her.
- Go to an arts building and take a picture in front of a student display.
- Go to the English department and find the name of the chair.
- Grab a pamphlet about student organization.
- Jot down the names of two campus cafeterias or food stands.
- Learn the name of a cultural organization or association on campus.
- Locate the public bus stop nearest to campus. Write down the cross streets.
- Pick up a copy of a free campus newspaper.
- Pick up a pamphlet from the health center.

- Pick up an informational brochure from a career center.
- Sketch a picture of a statute on campus.
- Take a picture in a computer lab.
- Take a picture in a science lab.
- Take a picture in or around the football stadium. Earn an extra point for a picture taken on the football field.
- Take a picture in the college/university bookstore. Earn an extra point if everyone in your group is wearing something with university colors.
- Take a picture of college students studying.
- Take a picture with a student wearing a college/university sweatshirt or t-shirt.
- Take a picture on a bench that's been dedicated to an alumnus.
- Talk to five students and write down their names, majors, and hometowns. Each conversation is worth one point.
- Visit a campus library and ask the librarian how many volumes they have.
- Visit the admissions office and pick up an application. Earn an extra point for finding out the school's minimum ACT score requirement.
- Visit the financial aid office and college a FAFSA form. Earn an extra point if you find information about scholarships.
